

Devon's 1920s Houses

A symposium of talks and an exhibition presented jointly by Devon History Society and the Devon Buildings Group

Sidmouth, Alexandria road, courtesy Martin Mallinson

Saturday 29 April 2023

Rougemont Room, Exeter Central Library

Programme

- 10.00 – 10.10 Welcome and introduction to the programme and the Devon in the 1920s project
- 10.10 – 11.00 Council Housing in the 1920s (with Devon examples) – John Boughton, author of A History of Council Housing in 100 Estates (RIBA 2022)
- 11.00 – 11.45 Rehabilitating Rural Housing in Devon – Phil Planel
- 11.45 – 12.20 Building for new classes of clients: R.B. Sampson and other Devon architects – Julia Neville
- 12.20 – 12.30 Questions and Reflections
- 12.30 - 13.30 Lunch. View poster exhibition
- 13.30 – 14.15 Inside the 1920s house – Paul Cleave
- 14.15 – 14.45 Coleton Fishacre: a house for the holidays- National Trust speaker
- 14.45 Discussion and Close

An exhibition of posters produced by Devon in the 1920s researchers on examples of Devon's 1920s House will be available to view at lunchtime.