

8th January

The Princes in the Tower : Lyn Green

.. or were they in Coldridge all the time? Ongoing work examining the claimed links Edward V had with Coldridge.

12th February

Patriotic Girls are We : Tony Gale

What happened to jobs left vacant by soldiers in WW1, and the women who stepped up to fill them.

11th March

Plants, Poultices and Persecution : Tracey Norman

The history of traditional medicine in Devon - linked to our 2024 museum exhibition on Local Folklore.

8th April

The Amazing Dr. Muden : Elly Babbedge

The story of a pioneering 16th century surgeon from Butterleigh.

All talks are held in the Boniface Centre at Crediton (adjacent to the Parish Church). Doors open 7:15 for a 7:30pm start. CAHMS members £2, non-members £5.

Contact email : info@creditonhistory.org.uk