PREFACE

This is the second Index of the Devon Historian, covering numbers 16-30, which Lorna Smith has kindly produced for the Devon History Society. Once again we are in her debt.

The index is divided into four sections: subject index, author index, book review index and index of reviewers. In each case the part number is given first, followed by the pages within the volume. To make the index usable, cross-references have been provided.

It is proposed to issue further indexes as the Devon Historian proceeds.
